

SURVEY AND ACTIVITY PATTERNS OF NOCTURNAL MAMMALS IN A FRAGMENTED DRY DECIDUOUS FOREST OF KARNATAKA
H.C. Chetana and T. Ganesh

Main article in Zoos' Print Journal 22(4): 2644-2647; Manuscript 1576; ©Zoo Outreach Organisation; www.zoosprint.org

Appendix I. Casual questioner developed for extracting information from buffer zone villages in and around Savandurga state forest. Karnataka. India.

1.Name of village.....Date.../.../200

2.Name:.....

3.Age:

10-25 25-40 >40

4. Occupation

Agricultural Daily wages Job

5.have you sighted any wild animal recently?

No Yes if yes when & where.....

6. Have you ever heard about wild animals seen by your forefathers (Showing Field Guide Indian Mammals by Vivek Menon).....

7. Do you see all the animals that your forefathers have seen in the forest now?

Yes No

8. Do people go to forest for hunting. If so when do they go, in monsoon or in winter and what species they hunt?

MONSOON

WINTER

Day and Night

Day and Night

Only Day

Only Night

Only Night

Only Night

9. How often hunting is done?

Occasionally Only festivals Hobby Income

Civet

Gerbil

