

ON THE OCCURRENCE OF GOLDEN GECKO CALODACTYLODES AUREUS (BEDDOME, 1870) IN PAPIKONDA HILLS, EASTERN GHATS, ANDHRA PRADESH, INDIA

S.M. Maqsood Javed, Archana Waran and Farida Tampal

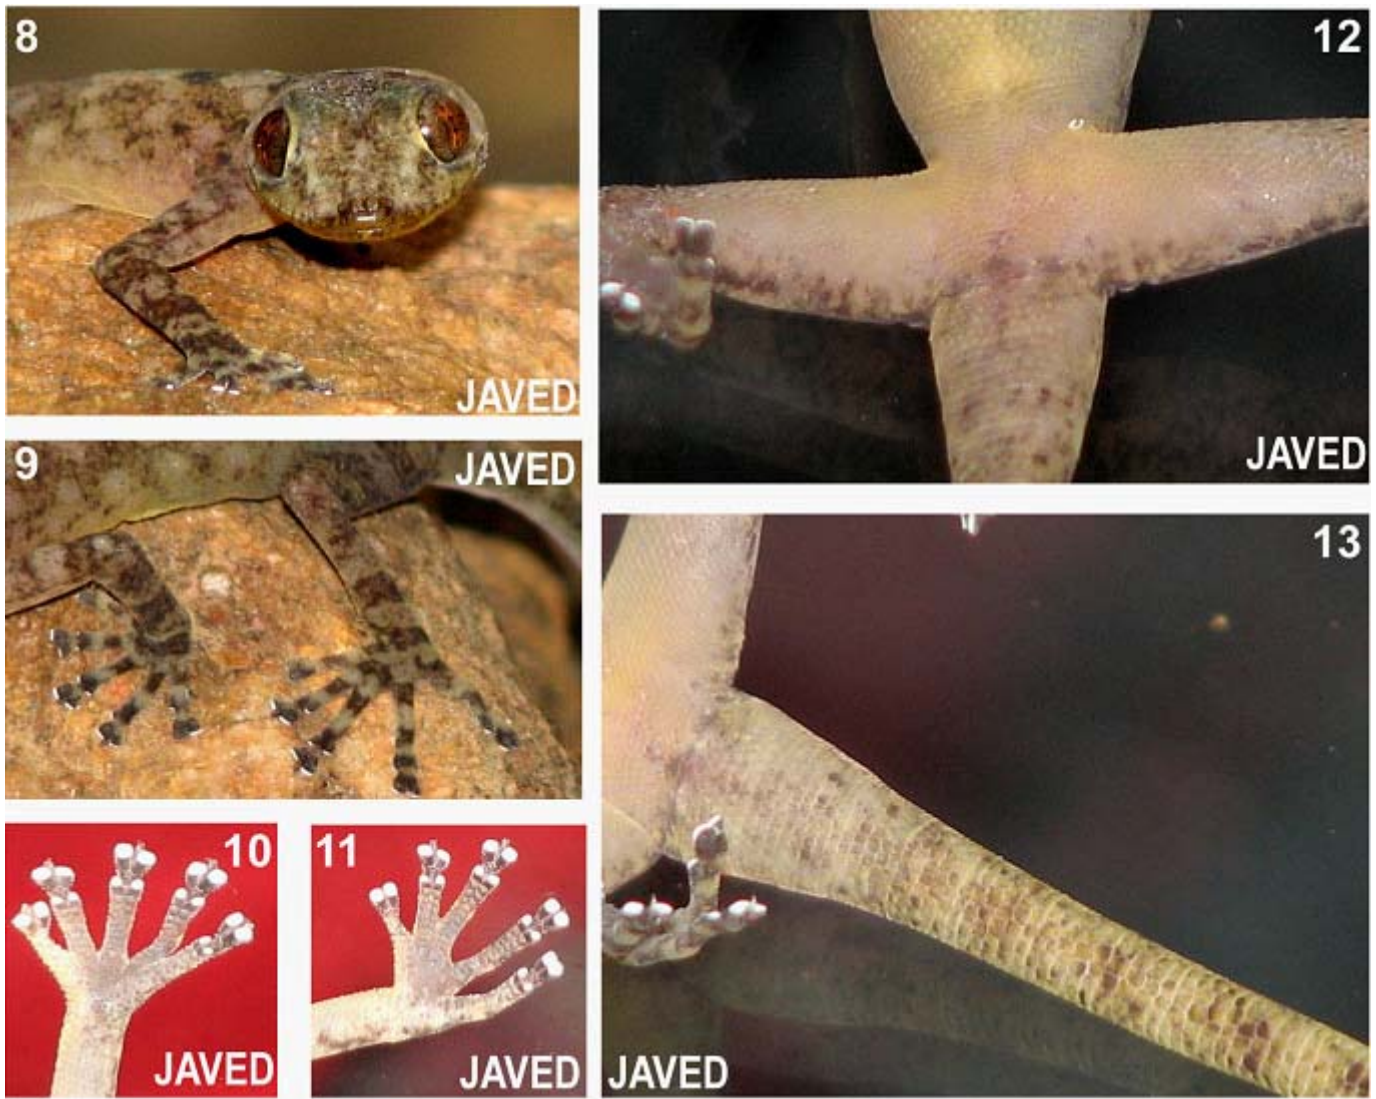

Main article in Zoos' Print Journal 22(6): 2727-2729; Manuscript 1735; ©Zoo Outreach Organisation; www.zoosprint.org

Images 1-3. Different habitats of Golden Gecko at Perantalpally, Papikonda Hills, Andhra Pradesh

Images 4-7. 4 - Golden Gecko Calodactylodes aureus Beddome, 1870 adult male on the boulder; 5 - Dorsal aspect of Golden Gecko showing distinct head; 6 - Lateral aspect of head region of Golden Gecko showing vertical pupil & ear opening; 7 - Lateral aspect of mouth region of Golden Gecko showing 12 upper & lower labials

Images 8-13. 8 - Front aspect of head region of Golden Gecko showing strong rounded supraorbital and canthal ridge; 9 - Dorsal aspect of Golden Gecko front & hind foot; 10-11 - Ventral aspect of Golden Gecko front & hind foot showing white plates on the digits; 12 - Ventral aspect of Golden Gecko showing no preanal or femoral pores; 13 - Ventral aspect of tail of Golden Gecko showing squarish scales

Images 14-16. 14 - Ventral aspect of trunk of Golden Gecko; 15 - Egg site showing Golden Gecko egg cluster on the roof of the boulder; 16 - Territorial display between adult Golden Geckos, showing the arch position

