

REHABILITATION OF AN INJURED SHIKRA *ACCIPITER BADIUS

I. Nath, J.K. Das, S.K. Panda, S.S. Lenka and K.L. Purohit

Main article in Zoos' Print Journal 22(6): 2737-2738; Manuscript 1692; ©Zoo Outreach Organisation; www.zoosprint.org

Image 1. A compound fracture in the left wing of the bird

Image 2. Skiagram showing distal radio-ulnar fracture along with a bullet

Image 3. Nick incision to retrieve the bullet

Image 4. Retrieval of the bullet by grasping it with a mosquito-forceps

Image 5. The air gun bullet wound

Image 6. Skiagram showing excess callous with healing of the fractured bone. Swallowed wall-lizard is also visible inside the crop

Image 7. Complete healing of the wound in the wing

Image 8. The bird trying to fly when held by legs

